- Evidence of status as a Company shareholder, issued by a depositary financial institution, by a custody agent, or by a shareholding interest position issued by Sanepar.

1.3. Shareholders Represented by an Attorney-in-Fact

Shareholders who are unable to attend and wish to attend in the Shareholders' Meeting may appoint an attorney-in-fact with powers to represent them.

As provided for in the Brazilian Corporations Act (Law No. 6,404, of 12/15/1976, paragraph 1 of article 126), shareholders may be represented at the shareholders' meeting by an attorney-in-fact appointed less than one (1) year before, who is a shareholder, manager, or attorney of the company. in a publicly held company, the attorney-in-fact may also be a financial institution, and the investment fund manager will be responsible for representing the joint owners.

In this regard, the necessary documents are:

- Power of attorney with special powers for representation at Sanepar's General Meeting, with notarization of the grantor's (shareholder) signature, as provided for in Law 6,404/76 or by qualified digital signature - with digital certification issued by a Certifying Authority, this being the only accepted format for powers of attorney sent digitally.
- Bylaws or Articles of Association and the instrument for electing/appointing managers, if the grantor is a legal entity; and
- Evidence of ownership of shares issued by the Company, issued by the depository and/or custodian institution, or shareholding position issued by Sanepar.
- Remote Voting Form duly completed and signed.

1.4. Foreign Shareholder Attending the Meeting

The foreign shareholder must present the same documents as the Brazilian shareholder, with the exception that the documents must be notarized, consularized and apostilled, and with a sworn translation, as the case may be, in compliance with Decree No. 8,660, of January 29, 2016.

1.5. Remote Voting Form (BVD in Portuguese):

In order to comply with the regulations regarding shareholders' attendance, Sanepar will adopt the remote voting system under the terms of CVM Resolution No. 81/2022, which regulated articles 121 and 127 of Law 6,404/1976, allowing its shareholders to send remote voting bulletins through their respective custody agents, bookkeeper, or directly to the Company, according to the following guidelines:

Shareholders who choose to exercise their remote voting rights may: (i) transmit the completion instructions to their respective custodians; or (ii) to the bookkeeping agent for the shares issued by the Company; or (iii) complete and send the Form directly to the Company, as per the guidelines below:

(i) Voting exercised through custody agents

Shareholders who choose to exercise their right to vote remotely through their respective Company custody agent must transmit their voting instructions in compliance with the rules determined by such agent, who will forward said voting ballots to B3's Central Depository. Shareholders must contact their respective custody agents to verify the procedures established by them for issuing voting instructions via form, as well as the documents and information required for this purpose.

(ii) Voting exercised through the bookkeeping agent

Shareholders who choose to exercise their right to vote remotely through their respective bookkeeping agent for shares issued by the Company must transmit their voting instructions observing the rules determined by the latter, who will forward said voting ballots to the Company. Shareholders must contact their respective bookkeeping agent for shares issued by the Company to verify the procedures they have established for issuing voting instructions via form, as well as the documents and information required for this purpose.
