(“Bradesco”) will become the bookkeeping and custody agent for the Company’s shares and Units, in replacement of Itaú Corretora de Valores S.A. (“Itaú”). As of the mentioned date, services to shareholders will be provided at the Bradesco branches, which are present nationwide.

Shareholders whose shares are held in custody at B3 will continue to be normally served by their respective brokerage firms and/or custodians, without any interruption in the trade of the Company’s shares.

As a result of this migration, the following shareholder services will be interrupted from October 25 to October 31, 2019:

- Shareholding position;

Regarding the securities transfer orders (custody movement) whose blocks have been made by Itaú without the deposit having been made, said brokerage house will transfer the blocks to Bradesco and these will remain valid until their due date.

It is noteworthy that this change will not imply any change in the share right, including dividends and any capital remuneration. Any payments will be made to the same checking account previously indicated by each shareholder.

Sanepar's Investor Relations department remains available to shareholders to clarify any doubts and / or questions related to the object of this Notice to the Market through its communication channels.
